Who we are

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Housing Queensland is the peak body for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander housing providers in Queensland. We are an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisation with an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander board. Established in 2021 by Community leaders, our main purpose is to improve Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander housing outcomes.

What we do

We represent the Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Housing Sector's interest to government through advocacy and advice on the sustainability and future of the Sector. We are committed to Sector development and develop various resources that can be used to build a stronger Sector.

Our plans for the next 12 months

Our main purpose is to improve Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander housing outcomes in Queensland. Our priorities over the next 12 months are:

- 1. Housing Priorities: Addressing existing Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Housing priorities.
- 2. Sector Development: Supporting the ongoing development of the Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Housing Sector.
- 3. Partnerships: Building partnerships that will help Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Housing Queensland achieve our Vision.
- 4. Sustainability: Developing strategies to support ongoing sustainability of the Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Housing Sector and our organisation.
- 5. Research: Undertaking research to obtain quality Queensland Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander housing data and evidence to achieve better outcomes.

Why we need members

It's simple; the more members we have, the stronger and more representative our voice is for the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community housing providers. Our effectiveness hinges on the representation of our membership.

If the future of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Housing is important to you and you meet our member eligibility criteria, please join.
